

https://www.ted.com/talks/rainn_wilson_ideas_worth_dating#t-252755

This activity is a brainstorming activity for individual essay #2 – What I'm curious about

Watch the video – Ideas Worth Dating

(It's about curiosities – ideas)

I.J. #21 – 2-9-17

Write a list of at least five to six curiosities you have that could be answered through interviewing people you know who aren't your parents. (Brainstorming for Essay #2)

How, Why, Where, Who, What ... ?

Some of Koladin's list:

Where can I get the best scuba training?

How can I become a divemaster?

What would it be like to have brothers?

What would it be like to be really tall?

How could I move to another country?

What would it be like to be fluent in another language?

Why do some people never go to college?

Who makes the best BBQ (restaurant) ?

How profitable and fulfilling is owning a food truck?

What is community policing all about?

Why are school OSS policies so lenient?

What is being a nurse in a hospital really like?

Where are the best places to go skiing in/near Ohio?

How can I become a character at a Disney park?