Motion to approve minutes from the September meeting made by Judy Sallerson, 2nd by Judy Fowler-passed. Parent meeting began at 7:30 p.m. with 11 parents present along with executive board members above and directors.

President's Report:

Lori Martino had nothing to report

Treasurer's Report:

The 2018-2019 tax return was reviewed and approved by the executive board. Lisa Arnold reported that we had failed to previously add Mrs. Michele Monigold to the booster bank account this year so we will be adding her now and issuing a debit card to her as well. Total profit from 50/50 sales to date is $6,264.50 and concession profit is $23,855.41 with one game left.

Committee Reports:

Uniforms: Karyn Russ reported that 3 hats were damaged by glow sticks this year, will look into alternative options for next year. Judy Sallerson reported that symphony uniform fitting will take place Wed. Oct. 30 @ 2:30 p.m. A remind text will be sent out regarding cost. During lock in, donation labels will be sewn into uniforms and storage room and uniform closet cleaned out. Turn in for marching band uniforms will be Wed. Dec. 4 after school.

Concessions: Christine Ferrante reported that the last home game is Friday and everything has already been purchased and set up for concessions. Leftover Coke products and candy will be purchased from us by girl's basketball concessions.

Old Business:

Fruit sale: Sheila McEvoy reported that delivery and distribution of fruit will take place on Dec. 13 & 14.

Gardner Pies: sale starts tomorrow and will run until Nov. 6. Pie delivery/pickup will be Nov. 23. The sale is available for 8th grade and up. Pies will be sold for $10 each with $3/pie going to individual student accounts.

Pampered Chef: Bonnie Zepp will again provide students the opportunity to sell from Nov. 11-Dec. 11 with 30% profit.

Tastefully Simple: Monica Starkey will provide students the opportunity to sell from Oct. 28-Nov. 11 with 30% profit. Items can be shipped directly to home.

NomNom Popcorn: sale is wrapping up with orders due today

Yard Signs: currently being sold for $20 each

Blacklight Show: thanks to the many parent volunteers who helped.

New Business:

Raising Cane's: Sunday Dec. 1

Lock In: could use more chaperones, may volunteer in shifts.

Mr. Gleason reported in the executive meeting that Jackson has been asked to host the Bluecoats Drum Corps show on Sat. June 20. Would only need 6-10 adult volunteers to sell programs, 6-10 adult or student volunteers to help people to their seats, 1-3 volunteers to help park cars, and would be a concession opportunity with all profit going to boosters.

Director's Reports:

Mr. Carlson reported that Improv club for JMMS students will start Oct. 31. One week from tonight will be the JMMS band Laser Quest night for grades 6-8.

Mr. Neal reported that freshman band auditions are taking place this week. Percussion ensemble parts will be passed out on Thursday this week so rehearsals can begin.

Mr. Gleason thanked everyone who has volunteered and for the support of the program.

Mrs. Monigold reported that concert band auditions are taking place this week and results will be posted on Monday. If Jackson makes the playoffs, they will continue concert groups Mon-Thurs, will practice outside on Fridays. Trip rehearsals will be starting after school. Nov. 19 will be a required parent/student trip meeting.

Miss Kinsey thanked everyone for making her feel welcome, she has enjoyed working with all students and teachers.

No executive or regular meeting next month due to required trip meeting on November 19 @ 7:30 p.m.
